Please note: the following eligibility requirements and terms must be met in order to proceed with the application process for AMERICA'S NEXT TOP MODEL (the "Series").

1. Participants who have previously applied (or who applied for the first cycle) are welcome to submit new applications for the current cycle.
2. At this time there will not be nationwide open casting calls; however, producers reserve the right to schedule them, not to have them at all or make other arrangements to find candidates and communicate with candidates, which may include a Facebook page all at Producer's discretion. We are still accepting videotape submissions sent to our mailing address and you can contact us directly at our Facebook page, ANTM Casting Director, to get more audition information. If the producers of the Series (the "Producers") elect to have a semi-final round, and you are selected for an interview in the Semi-Finals, you must be willing to travel at your own expense to a location (to be determined) in your region of the country. The Producers reserve the right to add, cancel and/or substitute other cities as interview locations for the Semi-Finals. If you are selected by the Producers for an interview during the final selection process, you must be willing to travel to Los Angeles for approximately one week sometime in May 2012 (as scheduled by the Producers) as part of the final selection process. The exact date of such interviews may be changed at any time by Producers in their sole discretion. Economy travel (roundtrip to Los Angeles from a major airport nearest your home in the United States) and hotel accommodations (room and tax only excluding all incidental or other charges) will be arranged and paid for by the Producers. You will also receive a per diem allowance in an amount to be determined by the Producers. Your schedule while in Los Angeles will be entirely at the Producers' sole discretion. All dates and locations listed in these eligibility requirements and in the application form are subject to change in the Producers' sole discretion without notice.

Economy travel to and from the production location and a major airport nearest your home in the United States will be arranged and paid for by the Producers for participants to travel to the house.
4. If you are chosen to be a participant, it is your responsibility to make any necessary arrangements with your employer and family in anticipation of your extended absence from home. Finalists must hold a current U.S. passport, as international travel may be required of all participants.
5. The house is extensively outfitted with video and audio recording devices which will record, broadcast and exhibit your actions and voice at all times, twenty-four hours a day, seven days a week in every room of the house as well as any and all locations and settings outside of the house for the duration of your participation in the Series. You will be observed at all times by the Producers as well as the general public watching on television and possibly the Internet.

Producers reserve the right to make any exceptions. Additionally, if you are currently represented by an agent or manager and are selected to be interviewed for the Series, you must provide sufficient evidence to the Producers that you will be able to effectively terminate such representation prior to your participation in the Series, if selected, or to make other arrangements as required by Producers. If selected to participate in the Series, you must terminate, prior to your participation, any representation which conflicts with the terms of your participation, but you may be asked to terminate such representation before final decisions are made on the final group of participants or you may be asked to make such other arrangements that will allow you, in Producer's sole discretion, to participate in the Series. Producers, the CW Network, Pottle Productions and any entity or person related to the Series are not responsible or liable in connection with any termination of such representation by an agent or manager or other representative and you terminate such relationships at your own risk.
